CPIO/Central, East and South:

In this regard, comments of CPIO/Central, East and South have been obtained who submitted that the requisite information on point No. 4 was obtained from all the SHOs of their respective Sub Divisions and the same was supplied to the appellant.

Decision :

I have gone through the contents of RTI application, appeal of the appellant, comments of CPIO/ W&CSU, Central, East and South vis-à-vis material available on record which revealed that the appellant vide his RTI application, had sought information on 5 points i.e. latest inspection report of WPS, data of complaints since the inception of Women Police Station Sector 17, complaints received back from FWC in 2018 along with details of Staff cases handed over, data of complaints, cases & FIRs filed in the last 3 years, data of cases which people came to enquire under the Know Your Case scheme.

CPIO/W&CSU had supplied the requisite information to the appellant on point No. 2, 4 & 5. However, information on point No. 1 and 3 was denied being a third party information.

So far as the appeal is concerned, on carefully reading the contents of RTI application, it is clear that information sought vide point No. 1 i.e. latest inspection report of Women Police Station Sector 17, is related with women complainant which is sensitive in nature and cannot be supplied being a personal information.

With regard to point No. 3, data of complaints received from Family Welfare Committee has already been provided by the CPIO; however, CPIO/W&CSU wrongly denied the details of police officials who dealt the cases/complaints received from FWC. The detail of police officers who dealt these cases can be supplied to the appellant without disclosing the personal and sensitive nature of information related to women complainant.

In view of above, CPIO/W&CSU is hereby directed to supply the requisite information on point No. 3 (name and total number of cases dealt by each police officer) as per RTI act to the appellant as discussed above.

It is also pertinent to mention here that CPIO/Central, East & South have already supplied the available information on point No. 4 to the appellant. Hence, no action is required to be taken on this point.

With these observations, the appeal is disposed of accordingly.

In case, the appellant is not satisfied with the disposal of this appeal, he can file second appeal before the Hon'ble CIC, CIC Bhawan, Baba Gangnath Marg, Munirka, New Delhi - 110067 under the RTI Act within 90 days.
