DECISION :-

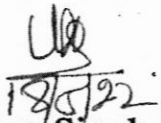

I have gone through the contents of RTI application, appeal of the appellant, comments of CPIO/Central vis-à-vis material available on record. The matter pertains to case FIR No. 06 dated 11.06.2022 u/s 419, 420, 467, 468, 471, 120 B IPC and 7A/13 of PC Act, PS Sector 03, Chandigarh. At the time of disposal of RTI application, the instant case was under investigation and the information was rightly denied by the CPIO u/s 8(1)(h) of RTI act.

Now, as far as the instant appeal is concerned, after completion of investigation, the case in question has been Put in Court on 26.04.2022 and providing the requisite information at this stage would impede the process of prosecution, hence, the same is denied u/s 8(1)(h) of RTI act.

So far as the issue of dates (i.e. 30.10.2021 & 03.11.2021) of RTI application is concerned, CPIO/Central reported that the same were written inadvertently due to clerical mistake, the actual date of RTI application is 20.01.2022.

With this, the appeal stands disposed off, accordingly.

In case, the appellant is not satisfied with the disposal of his appeal, he can file second appeal before the Hon'ble CIC, CIC Bhawan, Baba Gangnath Marg, Munirka, New Delhi-110067 under the RTI Act within 90 days.
